

CALIFORNIA WORLD HISTORY ASSOCIATION
CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Friday 14 November 2008 (all Friday events at the Seven Hills Conference Center)

3:00 – 6:00 pm – Conference Registration, Opening Hospitality, & Book Exhibit

3:45 PM – OPENING COMMENTS

Welcome to San Francisco State University,
Welcome to the 2nd Annual CWHA Conference, Sharlene Sayegh, President CWHA

4:00 – 5:30 pm –ROUND TABLE "Technology and the World History Project: Teaching and Researching Across Boundaries"

Introductions: Sharlene Sayegh (California State University, Long Beach)
Ray Kea (University of California, Riverside)
Ross Dunn (San Diego State University)
Dave Neumann (California State University, Long Beach and CHSSP)
Emily Rader (El Camino College)

6:00 – 7:30 pm – BANQUET

African Diasporic Approaches to Teaching World History
David Anthony, University of California, Santa Cruz
Introductory Comments: TBA

7:30 pm –Business Meeting, Grand Ballroom

Saturday 15 November 2008 (all Saturday events in the Humanities Building)

7:30 AM – Registration Tables Open / Book Exhibit open all day

Session A: 8:30 – 10:00 AM Humanities Building

A1: Roundtable: Basic Building Blocks of True World History Courses, Grade 6: (ROOM 111)

Avi Black (Alameda County Office of Education)
Stanley Burstein (California State University, Los Angeles)
Craig Benjamin (Grand Valley State University)

A2: Roundtable: Basic Building Blocks of True World History Courses, Grade 10 (ROOM 113)

Bill Foreman (Hayward High School)
Robert Strayer (California State University, Monterey Bay)
Ken Curtis (California State University, Long Beach)

A3: Approaches to Teaching and Researching World History (ROOM 126)

Chair: Alex Zukas (National University, San Diego)
Tax Maximization as a Tool in Historical Analysis
James B. Klein (San Francisco State University)
America Unbound: Bringing an Atlantic Perspective to the History Curriculum
Linda Rupert (University of North Carolina, Greenboro)

10:00 – 10:30 – Hospitality Break (Courtesy of Bedford-St. Martin's)

Session B: 10:30 – 12:00 PM

B1: Roundtable: Basic Building Blocks of True World History Courses, Grade 7: (ROOM 131)

Gerry Morrison (Hoover Middle School)
Ross Dunn (San Diego State University)

B2: Inscriptions of Confucianism: Past, Present, East, and West (ROOM 127)

Chair: Pi-Ching Hsu (San Francisco State University)
Zhu Xi and the Western Conceptualization of Confucianism as a Religion
Christopher Crowley (San Francisco State University)
Confucianism as a Bridge Between 'Life-as' Forms of Religion and 'Subjective-life' Spirituality
in the Modern Western World
Robert Meyer (San Francisco State University)
Skewed Representations of 'Confucian' Authoritarianism in Traditional and Contemporary Chinese Laws
Carolyn Heinkel (San Francisco State University)
Early Twentieth-Century American Reception of Confucianism
Steve Pineda (San Francisco State University)

B3: Roundtable: Basic Building Blocks of True World History Courses, The US and the World: (ROOM 126)

Tom Laichas (Crossroads Middle School)
Carl Guarneri (St. Mary's College of California)

B4: Race, Difference, and Power (ROOM 111)

Chair: Lorna Zukas (National University, San Diego)
Globalizing Racism: Colonial Whiteness as a Tool for Understanding Racism in Early 20th Century World History
Michael Vann (Sacramento State University)
From Persecuted Racial Minority to a Model Minority: How Jews in WWII Dominican Republic became White
Blanche Wiesen Cook and Edward Paulino (City University of New York & John Jay College)

12:00 – 1:30 PM – LUNCH (For those ordering lunch, it will be delivered to the Humanities Lobby)

Session C: 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm

C1: The Relevance of Hominids, Early Humans, and the Paleolithic to World History (ROOM 131)

Chair: Kristi Woods (Riverside City College)
Hominids: The Missing Link Between Science and History
Cynthia Brown (Dominican University of CA)
When Did History Begin?
David Christian (San Diego State University)
Paleolithic in Human History

Craig Benjamin (Grand Valley State University)
Discussant: Ross Dunn (San Diego State University)

C2: Teaching Religion Across Boundaries: A Consideration of Themes Across Religious Traditions (ROOM 111)

Chair: Stanley Burstein, California State University, Los Angeles
The Eremitical Ideal in World Religions
Matthew Herbst (University of California, San Diego)
Pilgrimage in Three Major World Religions
Heidi Keller-Lapp (University of California, San Diego)
Translating Faith: The Transmission of Religious Concepts Across Cultural Boundaries
Edmond Y. Chang (University of California, San Diego)

C3: Gender and Identity Politics (ROOM 113)

Chair: Ray Kea (University of California, Riverside)
The 'Woman Question': Korean-born Students, Gender and the Politics of Korean Nationalism, 1919-1945
Anne Choi (National University, Costa Mesa)
Identity of Armenian Sweatshop Workers and Migrants in Los Angeles
Carina Galustian (University of California, Los Angeles)
War, Ideology, and the Making of Women Revolutionaries: The Case of Zimbabwe
Lorna Lueker Zukas (National University, San Diego)

C4: Literature and World History (ROOM 126)

Chair: Rainer Buschmann (California State University, Channel Islands)
Teaching History through Literature: The Mexican Revolution
Luis Acebal (National University, Redding)
The Benefits of Cooperation: How Sulpicia and Ban Zhao are Leading to Feminist World History
Emily Pace (San Diego State University)
Religion and the Denial of Race: Lafitau's Mœurs des sauvages américains of 1724
Daniel Thorburn (National University, Stockton)

Hospitality Break: 3:00 – 3:30 pm (Courtesy of Pearson Prentice Hall)

Session D: 3:30 pm – 5:00 pm

D1: Roundtable: “Strategies in the Teaching of Undergraduate World History” (ROOM 127)

Chair: David McQuilkin (Bridgewater College)
Scott C. Matsushita Bailey (University of California, Berkeley)
Florence Baker (El Camino Community College)
Robert Strayer (California State University, Monterey Bay)
Eric Vanhaute (Ghent University, Belgium—University of California Berkeley, 2008/9)

D2: Colonial Power (ROOM 113)

Chair: Jim Davis (Mt. San Jacinto Community College)
'Englishman' & 'Native': Articulating Difference during Railway Travel in Colonial India
Ritika Prasad (University of California, Los Angeles)
Modern Art and Alternative Modernities
Ralph Croizier (University of Victoria, Canada)
Representations of Race, Class and Gender in the Maps of Herman Moll, 1700-1732

Alex Zukas (National University, San Diego)

D3: Infusing Global Perspective in the Middle School World History Classroom: Writing and Teaching Closeup Units for World History for Us All (ROOM 131)

Chair: Ross Dunn (San Diego State University)

Gail Hamilton (Bancroft Middle School)

Gabby Mercado (Bancroft Middle School)

Gerry Morrison (Hoover Middle School)

5:15 – 6:30 KEYNOTE ADDRESS, Humanities Lecture Hall (HUM 133)

Teaching the United States in World History

Carl Guarneri (St. Mary's College of California)

Introductory Comments: Robert Strayer (California State University, Monterey Bay)

6:30 PM CLOSING RECEPTION (Humanities Lobby and Courtyard)